

Lambda in VPC – Internet Access

- A Lambda function in your VPC does not have internet access
- Deploying a Lambda function in a public subnet does not give it internet access or a public IP
- Deploying a Lambda function in a private subnet gives it internet access if you have a NAT Gateway / Instance
- You can use VPC endpoints to privately access AWS services without a NAT

Note: Lambda - CloudWatch Logs works even without endpoint or NAT Gateway