

What are parameters?

- Parameters are a way to provide inputs to your AWS CloudFormation template
- They're important to know about if:
  - You want to reuse your templates across the company
  - Some inputs can not be determined ahead of time
- Parameters are extremely powerful, controlled, and can prevent errors from happening in your templates thanks to types.